FEATURES

- 20 HOTSEAT: RONDA ROUSEY
Considering Rousey didn't even know that WWE ran non-televised arena shows until relatively recently, it's understandable that she wouldn't have heard of the PWI "Female 50" (or the "Women's 100") before Senior Editor Dan Murphy informed her that she was selected number one. In this exclusive Q&A, "Rowdy Ronda" discusses her whirlwind rookie year, her goals, and her vision for women's wrestling in the not-so-distant future
- 26 GOLD VALUE: $140,000; VALUE TO CODY: IMMEASURABLE ... THE NWA BELT IS BACK WHERE IT BELONGS!
Cody Rhodes understood the historical significance of his challenge of Nick Aldis for the NWA heavy-weight title at All In. Try as he did to convince himself that this match was not about Dusty Rhodes, he was overcome by the spirit of "The American Dream." And when he won the title, he admits that there was "probably never more of a day that I was Dusty's son."
- 30 TOO BIG TO FAIL? ROMAN REIGNS CAN'T SHIELD HIMSELF FROM HISTORY!
If Roman Reigns is a student of history, he would know that his career, while successful by almost all measurable standards, is headed for disaster. If he's not a student of history, he should read this article.
- 35 RONDA ROUSEY TOPS THE PWI "WOMEN'S 100"
Ten years after establishing this magazine's listing of the top women in the sport, PWI has opened the field to 100 women ... and the clear-cut winner is a woman who never had a match until this past April.
- 57 THE PWI ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS 2018 BALLOT
Vote in 11 categories, and send us your "Official Unofficial" Awards. The deadline is December 15!
